- (1) A candidate possessing the requisite eligibility criteria for the posts specified in Appendix-A prescribed under the relevant recruitment rules shall be eligible for admission to the examination.
- (2) A candidate for admission to the Examination shall have attained not less than a minimum age of 20 years and shall not have attained the maximum age prescribed in the relevant recruitment rules on the date as may be specified in the advertisement by the Board:

Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed in accordance with the provisions of the Gujarat Civil Services Classification and Recruitment (General) Rules, 1967.

13. Decision of the Board shall be final.-

- (1) The decision of the Board as to the eligibility of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final.
- (2) If at any time, the candidate is found ineligible to appear at the examination, his candidature shall be treated as cancelled ab-initio:

Provided that if a candidate is already selected and appointed, his appointment shall be treated as cancelled ab-initio and his service shall be terminated forthwith:

Provided further that no such appointment shall be terminated unless the candidate has been given an opportunity of being heard.

14. Appearance at the main examination.-

- (1) The Preliminary Examination shall consist of One Paper of Objective type (Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs)) and carry a maximum mark of 100 and the Scheme and the time period for the same is as specified in Appendix-F. This Preliminary Examination is meant as a screening test only. The marks obtained in the Preliminary Examination by the candidate shall not be counted for determining the final order of merit. The number of candidates to be allowed to appear for the Main Examination, subject to availability, shall be about Seven times the total number of vacancies so advertised.

- (2) The candidate, who is declared qualified in the Preliminary Examination by the Board, shall only be eligible for admission to the Main Examination subject to the condition that he is otherwise eligible for admission to the Main Examination.
- (3) The Main Examination for the final selection of the candidates for the Group-A and Group-B, shall be held in manner as specified in Appendix-G. The final ranking of the candidate shall be determined on the basis of the marks obtained by him in the main examination:

Provided that candidates belonging to the reserved categories may be allowed to appear in the Main Examination or, as the case may be, called for Main Examination relaxing the standards in the Preliminary examination or, as the case may be, in the Main Examination if the Board is of the opinion that sufficient number of candidates from these categories are not likely to be available for the Main Examination or, as the case may be, on the basis of qualifying standard for general category in order to fill up the vacancies reserved for such categories.

15. Qualifying standards and marks.-

The qualifying standard for Preliminary Examination and Main Examination shall be determined by the Board from time to time and if necessary, separately for reserved and non-reserved categories of candidates. However, the minimum qualifying standard determined by the Board shall not in any case be less than 40% of marks in each stage.

16. Prohibition to use certain devices/material in the examination hall.-

- (1) The candidate shall be required to answer all the question papers of the examination in his own handwriting. However, candidate who belongs to the person with disabilities category shall be allowed to write in the Examination with the help of a scribe subject to such instructions as may be issued by the Board in that behalf from time to time.
- (2) In addition to the list of items declared prohibited by the Board, the candidate shall not be allowed to carry with him a cellular phone, calculator, pager, tablet, i-pad, smart-watch or any other electronics communication device.

17. Disciplinary actions.-

violating any of the conditions for admission to appear in the examination as prescribed and specified in the admission certificate to take the examination may, in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution, be liable-

- (1) to be disqualified by the Board from the examination for which he is a candidate; or
- (2) to be debarred either permanently or for a specified period,-
 - (a) by the Board for appearing in any examination or candidature for the concerned post, or
 - (b) by the Government from any employment under it:

Provided that no penalty under sub-clause (a) or (b) shall be imposed except after giving the candidate an opportunity of making such representation in writing as he may wish to make in that behalf and with the prior approval of the Government; or

- (3) To disciplinary action under the relevant rules, if he is in the Government service.

18. Preparation of select list.-

The Board shall prepare a select list in accordance with the provisions of these rules for the concerned posts or the Secretariat Department or the district or the office or combination thereof as the case may be, in order of merit on the basis of marks awarded to each candidate in the Main Examination and the order of preference given by him to the extent of the number of vacancies requisitioned.

19. Order of preference.-

- (1) The candidate shall indicate, when prescribed by the Board, the order of preferences for the posts or the department or the office or as the case may be, combination thereof for which he desires to be considered for appointment separately for the Posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B as specified in rule 6 in such manner as may be prescribed by the Board:

Provided that the preference once given by the Candidate shall be treated as final and no request for revision, addition, alteration or change in the preference shall be entertained by the Board or by the Government:

Provided further that the candidate, who intends to be considered for Junior Clerk under the Office of District Collector, shall be required to indicate the order of preference of District up to the choice of three Districts before the commencement of Main Examination as may be prescribed by the Board. No change in preference of District once submitted by a candidate shall be permitted.

- (2) The order of preference for the posts or the department or the office or the District or as the case may be combination thereof, indicated by the candidate shall not confer any right for appointment to those posts or the department or the office or the District or as the case may be combination thereof, having regard to the rank in the order of merit and the number of posts or the department or the office or as the case may be combination thereof, available, the preference given by the Candidate shall be considered by the Board at the time of allotment:

Provided that the preference for the District given by the candidate for the post of Junior Clerk under the Office of District Collector shall be considered by the Revenue Department at the time of allotment of District based on the rank in the order of merit in the Cadre of Junior Clerk under the Office of District Collector as allotted by the Board.

- (3) Where a candidate has not given preference for any post or the department or the office or as the case may be combination thereof, or the candidate has given preference only for a few posts or the department or the district or the office or as the case may be combination thereof, and the number of posts or the department or the office or as the case may be combination thereof, for which he has given preference are not available to accommodate the candidate as per his preference, it shall be considered that the candidate is not interested in the posts or the department or the office or as the case may be combination thereof, available other than those posts or the department or the district or as the case may be combination thereof, for which he has given preference. In such case, the posts or the department or the office or as the case may be combination thereof, available shall be allotted to the other candidate in order of Merit based on his preference.

20. Procedure for preparation of select list.-

- (1) The result of all the candidates who have appeared in the Main Examination for the posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B shall be prepared separately and shall be arranged by the Board in the order of merit on the basis of marks finally awarded to each candidate in the Main Examination held separately for the posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B specifying details as the Board may deem fit and the same shall be caused to be published on the notice board and /or on website of the Board and the copy of the result so published shall be sent to the Government in General Administration Department and the concerned Secretariat Departments separately for the posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B as may be applicable.

- (2) The Board shall call the candidates individually as per their merit in the manner as may be decided by the Board separately for the posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B.
- (3) The Board shall prepare a select list for the concerned posts or the department or the office or as the case may be combination thereof, for the posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B to the extent of the number of vacancies requisitioned as per the merit of the candidate and the order of preference given by him.
- (4) The candidate who belongs to the reserved category and is selected on his own merit but according to his order of preference does not get the concerned posts or the department or the office or as the case may be, combination thereof and if the posts or the department or the office or combination thereof as the case may be, of the concerned reserved category is available as per order of preference given by such candidate of reserved category, then such, candidate shall be allocated to that the post or the department or the office or as the case may be, combination thereof against such reserved posts or the department or the office or combination thereof as the case may be. Such reserved post or the department or the office or as the case may be combination thereof, shall be treated as filled up post against the reservation quota of such category.

21. Procedure for allotment of District in case of Junior Clerk under the Office of District Collector. -

- (1) The Board shall send the list of the selected candidates for the post of Junior Clerk under the Office of District Collector in the order of merit as per the requisitioned vacancies to the Revenue Department.
- (2) The Revenue Department in turn shall call the candidates who are recommended by the Board for the post of Junior Clerk under the Office of District Collector on the basis of the order of merit.
- (3) The candidate shall be allotted the District as per the preferences limited up to three Districts only as given by the candidate while filling up the Application in the order of Merit based on the vacancy available.
- (4) The candidate who belongs to the reserved category and selected on his own merit but according to his order of preference does not get the choice of District within the limited preference given by him and if the Post of the reserved category is available in the District as per order of limited preference given by such candidate of reserved category, then, such candidate shall be allocated to that District against such reserved Posts of District. Such reserved post shall be treated as filled up post against the reservation quota of such category.
- (5) After completion of the allotment in the above manner, the Districts are arranged in the descending order based on the vacant posts left after such allotment.

- (6) The candidate who did not get the choice of District from the preferences of three Districts on the same order that have been submitted by the candidate, such candidate shall be allotted the District in the order of District Name after they are arranged in descending order as mentioned in above sub-rule (5).
- (7) The post remains vacant after the completion of the process of allotment of District to all the candidates, such vacant posts shall form the part of the next Requisition to be sent to the Board.

22. Preparation of select list.-

The Board shall prepare a select list in accordance with the provisions of these rules for the concerned posts or the Secretariat Department or the district or the office or as the case may be, combination thereof in order of merit on the basis of marks awarded to each candidate in the Main Examination and the order of preference given by him to the extent of the number of vacancies requisitioned.

23. Result of examination. -

The Board shall declare the result of the examination in two parts as under namely: -

Part I: The result of the successful candidates shall be arranged in the order of merit along with necessary particulars such as category of candidate, his date of birth, order of preference for post and such other particulars as the Government may direct or the Board may deem fit and the same shall be published on the notice board and/ or on web-site of the Board. The result shall be published by the Board in the Official Gazette and the copy of the same shall be sent to the relevant administrative Department. The Board shall communicate the result of the successful candidates individually in the manner as may be specified by the Board. The Board shall not enter into any further correspondence with the successful candidates after communication of the result.

Part II: The Board shall prepare a list of the unsuccessful candidates who are not included in Part I, specifying their names, seat numbers and total marks obtained by them and same shall be published on the notice board and/ or on web-site of the Board.

24. Forwarding result to the Government.-

The Board, on declaration of the result, shall forward to the relevant Secretariat Department, the list of candidates who are recommended for appointment along with necessary particulars such as category of candidate, his date of birth, order of preference for post and such other particulars as the Government may direct or the Board may deem fit. The relevant Secretariat Department shall forward such list received from the Board to the relevant Offices under their administrative control for appointment. The concerned appointing authorities thereafter shall issue orders of appointment of the candidates so allotted and such orders shall be sent to the concerned candidates by Register Post Acknowledgement Due (RPAD) or Speed Post.

25. No right to appointment.-

Merely qualifying in the examination shall not by itself confer upon a candidate any right to appointment and no candidate shall be appointed to the post unless the appointing authority is satisfied after making such inquiry, as may be considered necessary that the candidate is suitable in all respect for appointment to the post and public service.

26. Waiting list.-

There shall be no waiting list. The posts remaining vacant shall be included in the next recruitment event.

27. Appointment.-

Appointment of the selected candidates shall be made strictly in order of their rank in the merit list on the basis of the main examination prepared by the Board.

28. Joining to post. -

The selected candidate for appointment to the concerned post, shall have to join his posting within 30 days from the date of receipt of the appointment order. If the candidate fails to join his posting within 30 days, his appointment order shall be cancelled. However, if it is established that for the reasons beyond his control, the candidate could not join the posting within 30 days, the competent authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, allow such candidate to join the posting even after expiry of 30 days. However, the seniority of such candidate shall be determined in accordance with the Government orders in that behalf.

29. Controlling Authority.-

The Secretary to the Government in General Administration Department (Personnel) shall be the controlling and coordinating authority for the implementation of these rules.

30. Interpretation of rules.-

If any question arises as to the interpretation of any of these rules, the question shall be referred to the Secretary, General Administration Department (Personnel) for the decision and his decision in the matter shall be final.
